

Private Reading Guidelines by Psychic Medium Melissa White

Thank you for considering a private reading with Psychic Medium Melissa White. Our aim is to provide you with a comforting, validating, and empowering experience. Whether you choose a one-on-one phone or one-on-one in-person reading, please take a moment to review these guidelines to ensure the best possible session.

Attendance and Energy: Your energy and attitude towards the reading play a significant role in your experience. Please approach the session with an open heart and mind. Be willing to participate actively in the reading, responding with "yes," "no," or "I don't know" to help the energy flow smoothly.

Trust and Participation: For a successful reading, trust is essential. Please trust in the process and be open to receiving messages as they come through. Your willingness to engage with an open mind and an open heart greatly enhances the connection.

Grief and Timing: If you are recently grieving, please consider taking some time to heal before scheduling a reading. The initial stages of grief can be heavy and may not be conducive to mediumistic communication. Allow yourself the space to grieve before seeking a reading.

Spirit's Guidance: The Spirit World provides what we need, not always what we want. Be prepared for the possibility that the messages may differ from your expectations but trust that they hold significance for you. They will hold significance for you and are always meant to be helpful and empowering for you. It is up to Spirit as far as which loved ones step forward to communicate in any given reading.

Compatibility and Refunds: In rare cases, there may not be an energetic match between the medium and the client. If within the first 5-10 minutes of the session, it feels like an authentic connection isn't established, either party can choose to end the session with a refund. After the 10-minute mark, refunds will not be provided. Please do not book a reading with the intention to disprove or test the medium, as it disrupts the energy flow.

Personal Responsibility: While Melissa provides insight and guidance, you are responsible for your life choices. She will not be held liable for the decisions you make.

Medical Disclaimer: Melissa White is not a medical doctor and cannot diagnose you. Please consult a medical professional for health-related concerns.
